TREATY FOES SCORE POINT

Senate, by Vote of 48 to 40, Accepts Preamble to Reservations

TO FORCE DEADLOCK

Republicans Won Their First Victory Through United Party Front—Reed, Gore and Walsh Vote With Them.

Within four hours from the time President Wilson yesterday personally rallied the Democratic supporters of the German peace treaty against all reservations, the Republican majority in the Senate took the first step toward adopting the entire series.

Both sides solidified their lines as they entered upon the final stage of the long battle over ratification of the world peace pact. The Reublicans defeated in every attempt heretofore to obtain the adoption of amendments because of defections in their ranks, won their first victory through united party front.

Lacking only the vote of Senator Porter J. McCumber, of North Dakota they crushed every attempt backed by Democratic Senators to modify the initial provision of the program of reservations as recommended to the Senate by the Republican members of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. Ultimately they adopted it exactly as written by a vote of 48 to 40. Senators Reed, Gore and Walsh, Massachusetts. Democrats, voted with the Republicans.

Under the terms of the first paragraph, which originally was the preamble of the series of reservations, the treaty will not be binding upon the the United States until three of the four principal associated nations —Great Britain, France, Japan, and Italy—have formally accepted the reservations through diplomatic notes.

Plans made by Democratic leaders to throw the treaty into a legislative deadlock in case the resolution of ratification with the leading program of reservations fails to receive the two-thirds vote of the Senate necessary for its adoption were approved by President Wilson.

Acceptance of the reservations indorsed by the Republican majority would be equivalent to rejecting the entire treaty, in the judgment of the Chief Executive.

Turkey Dinner

Why do I smile, like Sunny Jim!
I'm going to have a treat.
I'm going to St. Pauls' Parish hall
For something good to eat.

November thirteenth—lucky day!
The Menue's simply fine
They serve it from six to eight—
I go at six for mine.

Turkey, hominy, cranberry sauce
Rolls, butter, slaw and pickles,
Hot coffee too— I know you think
It's worth full twenty nickles

When I heard the price,
I simply had to holler,
All these good things served to you
For three quarters of a dollar.

TRIES TO JOIN IN DEBATE

Washington, Nov. 8.—Joseph Horan, of New York, attempted to join with the United States Senate yesterday in its debate in the peace treaty.

"Gentlemen," he cried, rising from his seat in the gallery and drawing from his pocket an American flag, "I want to express"—I want to express"—and then the guards reached him. He explained to Capitol police later that he had "divine instructions" to tell the Senate a few things about the treaty, and was held for investigation.

HAASE DIES OF WOUNDS

Independent Socialist Leader Succumbs to Assassin's Bullet

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Hugo Haase, president of the Independent Socialist party, died from wounds received October 8, when he was shot three times when entering the Reichstag building.

His assailant, an Austrian named Johann Voss, fired three shots, wounding Herr Haase in the thigh, forearm and abdomen, Repeated operations were performed, culminating in the amputation October 27 of his right leg, the bone of which had been smashed by the bullet.

Voss, whom he was prosecuting on a charge of extortion, was said to have acted upon personal motives, although there was a natural tendency to seek a political background for the deed, since Haase was about to deliver a sensational speech charging the Government with encouraging the retention of German troops in the Baltic and with fostering attacks upon radicals by "murder bureaus."

PALMER IS STILL STANDING PAT

Remains Deaf to Any Government Compromise With Union

WILL PRESS HIS SUIT

Gompers Threatens Grave Labor Trouble If Drastic Order is Issued —No Effect Upon Attorney General

The government will proceed today with its plea to Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis, for a mandatory order which will command the leaders of the bituminous coal strike to revoke the call for a walkout of 425,000 miners and which permanently will restrain these leaders from giving aid or encouragement to the strikers.

The Department of Justice will ask for a postponement of the hearing, and will neither offer nor accept a compromise with the strikers unless the strike order is first revoked and the act of the United Mine Workers of America is renounced.

This was the situation following a day of feverish conferences and futile efforts to find a middle ground which might bring to a swift end the paralysis of more than three-fifths of the producing coal fields of the country.

Three times during the day Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was closeted with Attorney-General Palmer, first pleading, then demanding that the Government not press its petition to the court for a mandate which summarily would cancel the strike order. But when he had withdrawn from the office of the Attorney-General at 6.30 last night, the answer which came to the public from Mr. Palmer was that the Government had not relented one degree.

Gompers, it is believed, warned the Attorney-General that any drastic action on the part of the court would precipitate a graver labor situation than any which has ever existed in this country, but such warnings had no effect whatever upon the Attorney-General. He is standing pat in his battle against what he believes to be not only an indefensible, but an unlawful strike.

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

In the face of Tuesday's election figures there is strong ground at least, for the belief that the overwhelming legislative ratification of the prohibition amendment does not reflect popular will. In Ohio, Kentucky, New Jersey and New York there was evidence of a marked revolt and reaction. This may not mean that a majority of the people of the United States favor the repeal of the amendment, but as far as it goes, it indicates that there is no such preponderance in favor of it as was supposed to be shown by the members of State Legislatures which ratified it while the country was busy with the great war business. State referendums as a constitutional proposition may have very little force in the United States Supreme Court but they are extremely significant as to real public sentiment.

The misfortune and danger of the present situation arise from the fact that millions of American citizens believe that an inherent right has been taken from them in an un-American fashion—that there has been legislation without real popular representation. They feel that they have been cheated, that something vital has been "put over" on them by political trickery, and as long as they feel that way, they will be resentful and rebellious.

The opposition in Virginia to the position of Prohibition Commissioner and the maintenance of his department, costing $50,000 a year, is becoming more apparent daily. It will be an issue at the meeting of the next Legislature and the selection of a Speaker in the House of Delegates. Candidates for this position have announced their platforms. They are showing those whose votes they are seeking how they stand on this issue.

AFTERMATH OF THE WAR

Lately returned from the Balkans, where she was active as a general Red Cross worker specializing on Jewish relief, Miss Helen Goldman one night this week spoke in the auditorium of the Young Men's Hebrew Association, in Philadelphia, upon the distress of Jews in Macedonia, Servia and Rumania.

Miss Goldman first told of conditions in Saloniki, where a fire broke out in 1917, destroying more than 80,000 people, of whom 50,000 were Jews. The population had to go through a winter without roofs over their heads or any protection from the elements.

Constantinople, she said, is a city of violent contrasts. Wealthy Russian refugees lived in hotels in comparative luxury and ease, while at any time of the night one could see little children, 2 or 3 years old, huddled together trying to keep themselves warm.

As the people of Roumania had neither clothes nor fuel they kept their windows shut so that the air became vitiated and many are being carried off by typhus. Jews are not recognized as Rumanian citizens, she said.

LESSON FROM GERMANY

As was recently stated in the Gazette, anthracites and brown coal workers of Saxony, recognizing the critical situation due to the coal shortage, have voted to resume working eight hours a day until March. They have also decided to work on Sundays and holidays.

As a contemporary says, "it will be noticed that the Saxon miners, without haggling over wages, cheerfully agree to put in 56 hours of work each week in order to help out their countrymen in a critical state of affairs. In America soft coal miners are demanding a 30-hour week, and no appeals based on the plight of their fellow-citizens in the event of a protracted strike seem to carry weight with them.

"It is the spirit behind these German workers that is the significant thing. They recognize the fact that the future of their country is entirely dependent upon its working people, and that unless they face the situation cheerfully and bravely, with a perfect willingness to do their part fully in putting the nation upon its feet again, the years to come will bring nothing but disaster.

Premier Clemenceau, speaking at Strasbourg, not only for France, but for the whole world, emphasized the same point. The salvation of mankind lies in work. If Germany grasps this point more fully than do other countries she will be one of the first to recuperate from the war, notwithstanding the heavy burdens laid upon her by defeat. It is remarkable that American workers, who yield to none in intelligence, do not show an equally rapid appreciation of this simple truth."

AT MERCY OF UNION

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writing from Frostburg, Md., says that through the kindness of officials of the United Mine Workers of America, District No. 16, that town has permission to keep its water supply at normal, thus protecting its population from the ravages of fire and drought. This permission came at the last minute, but Frostburg is duly grateful. Had it not been obtained Thursday, the pumping station west of Big Savage Mountain would have had to shut down yesterday, and this mountain town would have been waterless. It is windy up there, too, and a fire would have had a fine feast on some $2,000,000 worth of property.

The story of the rescue of Frostburg, as told by residents of the town, including town officials, notably Conrad Kneirim, the water superintendent, sheds a great light upon the possibilities for despotism in the hands of strike leaders, a despotism equal to anything imputed to the leaders of capital by its bitterest enemies.

The coal used in operating the pumping station always has come from the mines around the neighboring country, little mines that can be worked by three men or less, and that supply dwellings, business houses and small public utilities from day to day. No coal is shipped eastward from these mines.

THE PUBLIC PAYS THE FREIGHT

So long as it looked as if every successful strike simply took money from the employers and gave it to the employees, the public looked on with no very keen interest, but with a mild sympathy for the men who were trying to get higher wages. It is begining to be appreciated that "the public pays the freight," and its interest in the epidemic of strikes that has been going on for months, and is now widespread, becomes keener by some infusion of self-interest.

The milk dealers in New York have just settled the demands of the drivers of milk wagons by giving them an increase to $35 a week and 2 per cent of collections, which is less than was demanded. The men accepted this, and the dealers have added 1 1-2 cents a quart to the price of milk. The federal, State and city authorities are now investigating this increase with a view to deciding whether it was justifiable.

As an exchange suggests, "the decision may be against the dealers, but in the long run the consumer has got to pay the costs of production and distribution, including the profits, without which the business will not be carried on. Railroad freights have been increased to cover the large increases made in wages, and the settlement is only temorary; further increases in wages are proposed. It is calculated that the proposed increase in the pay of soft coal miners will add $2 a ton to the cost of coal, and some estimates are a good deal higher than that."

RESTORATION OF PALESTINE

The New York Evening Post has furnished, in translated form, the synopsis of a Palestine engineering scheme as worked out by Albert Hiorth, a Norwegian civil engineer, that has a large amount of imaginative thrill to it, but which may be also, and probably is, feasible and perfectly sane as a big business proposition. The Norseman's scheme is to bore a tunnel from the Mediterranean Sea to the north end of the Dead Sea—the bore to be about thirteen feet wide and ten feet in perpendicular measure. The distance is about thirty-five miles.

The level of the Dead Sea is 1,367 feet below the level of the Mediterranean—there would be a down slope to the tunnel and a gravity flow all the way.

As to results—it is a combination irrigation and power scheme. Two and possibly three irrigation canals paralleling the Jordan would be built. Storage lakes and reservoirs—many such—would be needful, but it is said that thousands of existing cisterns, and also some quite imposing water works, dating as far back as the reign of David, could be partially included in these works. The irrigation system, it is said, would make productive hundreds of thousands of parched acres. It is said, also, that the stores of asphalt on the plains of Sodom and Gomorrah would be rendered commercially available.

OPPOSE 8-HOUR DAY

The world today is not prepared for the eight hour work day, the International Labor Conference was told yesterday afternoon by S. R. Parsons, of the British American Oil Company, and employer delegate of Canada, in declaring that he could not agree to sign the eight hour day convention.

This was the first declaration that has been made by capital on the floor of the conference in opposition to the eight hour day labor's goal. Mr. Parsons not only said that he would refuse to sign the eight hour day convention, but announced also his rejection of the amendments submitted to the convention by the employer delegates.

That it would be "suicidal" for Canada, a smaller rival, to agree to the eight hour day before the United States had signed the treaty of peace and thereby made known its attitude with regard to labor provisions, was one of the features of Parson's address.

THE TEST THAT TELLS

Is the Test of ime. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Test

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement, the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Milton Moor, 123 Duke St., gave the following statement on April 13, 1915: "Doan's Kidney Pills are one of our household remedies. I have used Doan's several times when I have had backache and general kidney disorder with very good results. I always recommend anything I know is good and I am sure Doan's are a fine remedy."

On March 14, 1919, Mrs. Moor added: "I praise Doan's Kidney Pills just the same as ever, for they have always been just as represented. If I have the least backache a few of Doan's are sure to give me relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

These Tires Are a Revelation

The Brunswick is frankly a combination of the best in tire building.

There is one tread that's supreme beyond question. And that is now on Brunswicks.

There is one side-wall construction, which, by every test, holds the summit place for endurance. And that one was adopted for Brunswicks.

Fabrics differ — up to 30 per cent — in their strength tests. On Brunswicks the maximum long-fiber is the standard.

There are certain additions, each one expensive, which add vastly to tire mileage. The Brunswick embodies all these extras.

There are no patents, no secret formulas to prevent any maker from building the best. It is simply a question of knowledge and skill — cost plus care.

Brunswick standards are known the world over. The very name certifies an extraordinary tire. Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Buy ONE Brunswick. It will prove that a better tire cannot be bought, regardless of price.

ELEVATOR BOYS KILLED

Accidents at Same Time in Willard and Geodetic Survey Building, Washington

Two elevator operators, one white, the other colored, were killed in accidents yesterday in Washington.

Paul C. Acton, 17, employed at the Coast and Geodetic Survey Building, was working in an elevator at the building when the cable broke. The elevator dropped three flights to the basement. Acton was thrown on his head, receiving a fracture of the skull.

The injured boy was rushed to Casualty Hospital. He died shortly after his arrival there.

The other fatality occurred at the Willard Hotel five minutes after Acton was killed. Walter Ford, colored, 28, employed as a freight elevator conductor at the hotel, was waiting for an elevator on the ninth floor. In an effort to determine the position of the elevator he thrust his head through a broken glass window opening into the elevator shaft. An elevator, operated by Fritz Campbell, colored, struck him, breaking his neck. The elevator was not stopped, as Campbell knew nothing of the accident.

A short time later an employe at the hotel saw Ford and called to him to take his head from the window. Examination showed the man was dead.

BOY'S SLAYER TO DIE

Webster Sentenced to Hang for Murder of Richard Duvall, on February 10

"Ten detectives lied on me; but if it's God will that I be punished that way, I am prepared."

This is what Charles Ross Webster, convicted of the murder of young Richard Duvall, out near Trinity College, Brookland, on July 7, answered in the District of Columbia Criminal Court No. 1 yesterday morning when the clerk asked him as to whether he had anything to say why the sentence of the law should not be pronounced.

Whereupon Justice Gould, presiding in the court, pronounced the death sentence, the same to be carried out February 10, 1920, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m., and 2 p. m.

WIFE ADMITS SHE ERRED

Detectives Fail to Get Evidence Against Woman; She Reveals It

London, Nov. 8.—The new trend of woman's privilege as it is being emphasized daily in Great Britain now is illustrated by the divorce action just concluded in favor of Sir Digby Lawson, a distinguished young British baronet, who was an officer in the war.

Lady Lawson deliberately told him that she had committed an act of indiscretion and pointed out to him virtually how he could find the evidence to divorce her.

Sir Digby Lawson, member of several aristocratic London clubs, married Miss Iris Mary Fitzgerald, daughter of the Hon. Eustace R. S. Fitzgerald. Three children were born of the marriage.

The divorce was granted and Sir Digby has obtained possession of the children.

RICHMOND MAN DECORATED.

Major Alexander Forward Gets Order of Roumanian Crown

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Colonel Henry W. Anderson, recently returned from overseas, after service of two years as the American Red Cross commissioner in the Balkan States, yesterday pinned the decoration of the crown of Roumania on Major Alexander Forward, state corporation commissioner, who served under Colonel Anderson in Roumania. The decoration carries with it the title of count. The ceremony took place in the office of Commissioner Forward, in the capitol, and was witnessed by capitol officials and few newspaper men.

150 REDS TAKEN

New York, Nov. 8.—One hundred and fifty extremists were seized in a raid last night by Secret Service agents and members of the New York police department bomb squad, at the Russian people's house, No. 133 East Fifteenth street, and hustled down to the Department of Justice offices. There it was said they are to be questioned with the view to learning whether they have been concerned in anti-American propaganda.

The raiders, arriving unannounced at the Russian people's house, found the doors locked and promptly smashed them in. Once inside, they met with little opposition.

In addition to arresting the 150 extremists, the raiders seized a large quantity of literature and some pictures.

CONSTIPATION

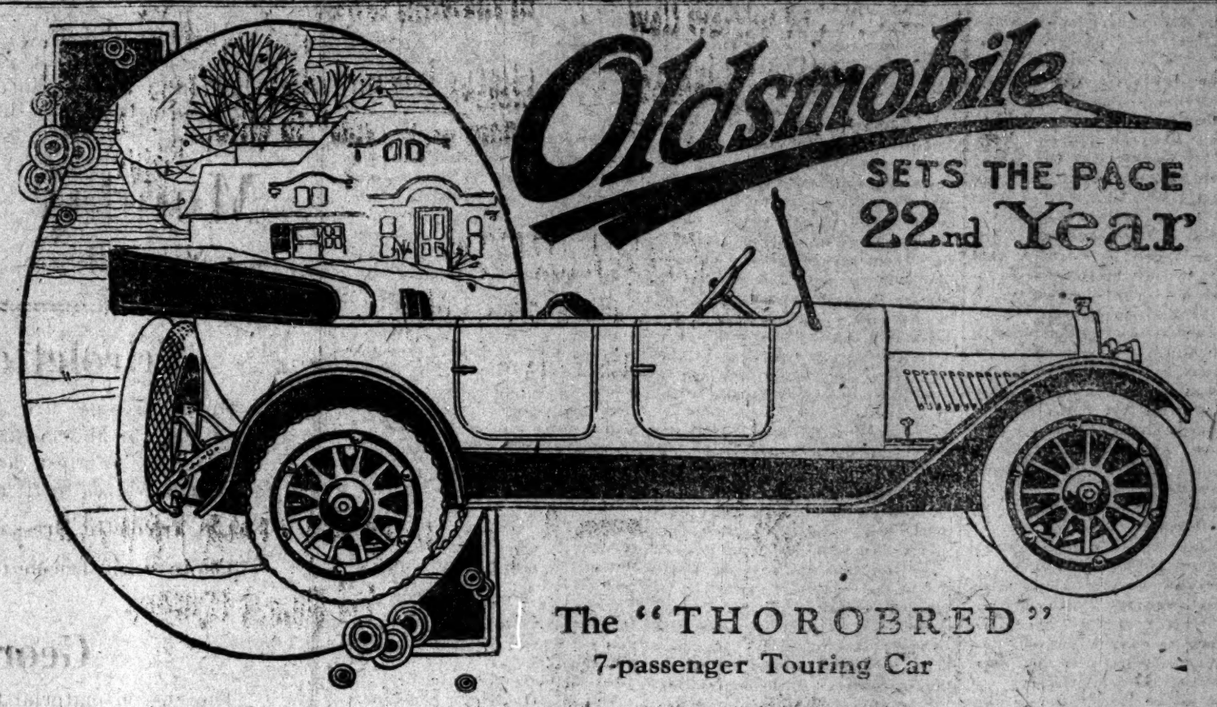
And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.,—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before.

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.



Oldsmobile SETS THE PACE 22nd Year

The "THOROBRED"
7-passenger Touring Car

THE trend of automobile engineering points to the 8-cylinder car. And good buying judgment points to Oldsmobile.

We aimed higher than simply pioneering the "eight." We aimed to produce one of moderate price and low maintenance costs, —that had the flexibility, smoothness and abundance of power inherent in the 8-cylinder car.

—that cost as little to buy and operate as the majority of "sixes" and many "fours."

—that would be smartly distinctive, yet characteristically Oldsmobile.

Our aim is attained in the "THOROBRED"—the only popular priced "eight" in which mechanical excellence is combined with rare riding comfort and up-to-the-minute body lines. Oldsmobiles have been the history-makers of motordom; the "THOROBRED" is well worthy to perpetuate the name.

Descriptive literature will be sent upon request, or a demonstration gladly arranged.

Virginia Governor Says State Forces Are Sufficient

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Governor Davis gave out a statement yesterday which revealed that he had refused to grant permission for Federal troops to be sent to the Appalachian coal fields, in Wise county, to quell reported disturbances among miners in that section. Necessity of sending Federal troops to that area was impressed upon him Thursday afternoon by District Attorney Hiram Smith, at the instance of Attorney-Gen. A. Mitchell Palmer. Thursday night he made known his decision to Mr. Smith, but it was not ascertained until yesterday just why the Governor had taken his stand upon the issue:

His statement follows:

"While I am Governor, law will be enforced and order maintained in Virginia. There is no disorder in the Appalachian coal fields or elsewhere in the State. Should occasion require, Virginia troops, of which there are 26 companies, will deal with disturbances in the State as prescribed by law, and Federal troops will be called for service in Virginia only under such extraordinary conditions as would develop from inability of Virginia troops to cope therewith, a deplorable situation which hitherto has not arisen in Virginia. No real good can come of a discussion of this matter at this time, for sensational publicity only tends to bring about a state of affairs which does not now exist and which, in the interest of our people, we should earnestly seek to avoid."

A telephone message from Appalachia stated that all is quiet there and that non-union men are working the mines.

G. W. HAWLEY SELF-SLAIN

Confederate Veteran, 74 Years Old, Had Been in Ill Health

George Washington Hawley, 74 years old, a Confederate veteran, ended his life early yesterday morning at his home, 809 Ninth street northwest, Washington, by cutting his throat with a pocket knife, and then shooting himself in the right temple. Ill health is believed to be the motive.

Hawley was discovered by his niece, Miss Minnie King, bleeding profusely from a deep gash in the throat. When she ran for assistance, Hawley shot himself. He was formerly a resident of Austin, Texas.

RITCHIE LEAD CUT TO 129

Canvass of Baltimore Takes 27 Votes From Democrats Margin

Baltimore, Nov. 8.—Harry Nice, Republican candidate for governor of Maryland, won 29 votes from his opponent, Albert W. Ritchie, in the post-election canvass which started in the city of Baltimore yesterday.

Ritchie had been declared winner by 156 votes, and his lead thus is cut down to the narrow margin of 129.

All of the twenty-seven votes were switched in a single ward. Less than half of the city has been canvassed.

Republican leaders say that several wards in the portion remaining may yield even larger returns for Nice, and hold that his chances of overcoming Ritchie's lead and gaining the governorship are good.

Tested 250,000 Miles
Three-Point Cantilever Springs
Greatest Improvement Since Pneumatic Tires

OVERLAND 4 has been put through the most thorough and severe test possible.

250,000 miles of mountain trails, desert sand, heat, cold, mud and dust, demonstrated the quality of every part of the car long before we began manufacturing.

This remarkable test showed conclusively that Three-Point Cantilever Springs, exclusive with Overland, are the greatest improvement in riding comfort since the introduction of pneumatic tires.

They protect the car from road shocks and prolong the life of every part.

They enable the wheels to hold better to the road. They give greater comfort under all road conditions.

They do away almost entirely with side sway and rebound which twist and rack the car.

Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Springs at both ends of a 130-inch Springbase gives the steadiness and smooth riding of the heavy car of long wheelbase.

Equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System to Marshall Divan Spring Upholstery.

Marriage License Bureau Records Shattered by Couple From Massachusetts

Another marriage license bureau record was shattered yesterday when Col. William A. Kroll, Cupid's right hand man, issued a marriage license for the Rev. Dr. Frank K. Stratton, 85 years, and Charlotte M. Hall, 71 years, to wed in Washington.

The Rt. Rev. John W. Hamilton, chancellor at the American University here, who procured the license in the interest of his friend, the Rev. Dr. Stratton, told Col. Kroll that the aged bridegroom to be has been married three times, all of his former wives being dead. Mrs. Hall, also, has been married twice, and both of her former husbands, are deceased.

The Rev. Dr. Stratton gives his home address as 654 Main street, Melrose, Mass., and his prospective bride's as 76 Greenleaf avenue, Medford, Mass.

Essex Motor Cars

The Essex Satisfaction

It Comes From the Ability to Out-Perform Others and in The Knowledge That it is a Fine Car Even Though it is Not Large

That Is Distinctive

One thing we can't forget in buying a motor car, is the pride of ownership.

The automobile is a pleasure vehicle and it spoils the fun to be hopelessly out-rivaled by a car that is smaller and costs less to buy.

And for the same reason there is a lot of satisfaction in having a car that, though it is small and its cost is less, does out-perform all of its class and has few rivals among the large, costlier automobiles.

THAT IS WHY YOU HEAR SO MUCH OF ESSEX

You will get his feelings best if you ride with an Essex owner who is inclined to show his car off to other motorists. All seem to experience the same satisfaction at being the first car away when acceleration is called into play.

Of course, anyone who have ever driven much knows that the greatest delight, where speed is concerned, comes with the ability to best a rival with extra bursts of speed. It is the situations which show a car's ability to out-perform others that give greatest cause for pride.

And, knowing that, there is little wonder they speak of the Essex as they do.

You don't hear Essex owners compare their cars to others of similar size or cost. They always tell how they have out-performed some bigger, costlier car.

Did you ever ask an Essex owner to tell you what he thinks of his car in comparison to another in the same weight and price range? He didn't hesitate to express his disdain, did he?

ESSEX QUALITY DIDN'T JUST HAPPEN

The Essex performs as it does because it is built to the highest type of car standard. Its smallness in size and moderateness of price have meant no sacrifice in either quality, durability or comfort to the user.

Do you know, for instance, that every detail in the construction of the Essex is comparable to one of the world's most famous fine cars?

That is why the Essex shows the performance that it does. It is why everyone knows it as an utterly different car than has ever been offered. As well attempt to judge the capacity of a man's brain by the size of his hat, as to determine what the Essex can do merely by its type or size and the fact that it sells for only a little more than other cars whose limitations you recognize. That standard doesn't work when the Essex is considered.

NOTE THE ADVANTAGES OF SUCH A CAR

The Essex is not a large car, neither is it tiny. No space is wasted. No extra weight is used. Neither passengers nor driver is crowded. They have plenty of room on the seats and for their legs. The size of the Essex gives it many advantages. It accounts for its moderate cost. It makes it a more economical car to operate. And think how much more convenient to drive. It slips through traffic where a larger car would be delayed. Parking space can be found that others can not squeeze into. It can be turned in a short radius.

SO DON'T FORGET THIS FACT

The Essex in every particular, save in its price and weight, is comparable to cars that cost much more, and it possesses the further advantage in economy that comes from its lighter weight.

It is not a light car in the sense that others of its size are usually judged. So examine the Essex with that thought in mind. And remember, 16,000 owners are telling of more good qualities about it than any Essex salesman can tell you. Essex owners will advise you to buy an Essex in either the five passenger touring, the sedan or the roadster models. We advise you be prepared to wait forde livery, for the demand exceeds the output of more than 100 cars a day.

POLICE STRIKERS LOSE

Massachusetts Supreme Court Refuses to Order Reinstatement

Boston, Nov. 8.—The Supreme Court denied yesterday the petition of the officers of the Boston Policemen's Union, who sought restoration to the positions from which they were removed by Commissioner Edwin Curtis because of their affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. The court acted on the request of the former policemen, headed by John F. McInnis, president of the union, for a writ of mandamus to compel the Commissioner to restore them. Judge Carroll held that they were not entitled to reinstatement because they had failed to avail themselves of remedies contained in the anti-coercion act.

It was the suspension of the 19 officers of the union by Commissioner Curtis that precipitated the strike of policemen September 7. The patrolmen were tried by the Commissioner on charges that they had violated departmental rule by their union membership and activities and were found guilty. Sentence was withheld for a time while union members announced only that any punishment of their leaders would be met by a strike. With in a few hours of the union officers' suspension the other members of the union walked out.

Commissioner Curtis, through counsel, contended that the petitioners had no standing in court because they were not members of the police force when they filed their petition. They failed, he said, to take advantage of their right to demand a review of the Commissioner's action under the anti-coercion act of 1918. Accordingly, he held, the action of the Commissioner became final and conclusive. It was on this ground that Judge Carroll held the former patrolmen were without redress.

PROUD OF HER VIRGINIA BLOOD

Lady Astor Shows Spirit When Asked Why She is Not Spending Energies in U. S.

Plymouth, Nov. 8.—"Do not think for one minute I am ashamed of my Virginia blood," snapped Lady Astor this afternoon at a women's meeting when she was asked why she was not spending her energies in America, where there are so many social evils as here.

"What do you want me to do?—sit at home and hold my hands?" Lady Astor went on. "I married in England, my interests for ten years have been in Plymouth, every drop of blood in my veins is Anglo-Saxon, and I am proud of my American birth."

Lady Astor's eyes flashed and she gestured for a moment. Resuming her speech, she declared women would be the ones to bring about the working of the League of Nations.

"Men tell you they had good times at the front," Lady Astor asserted, "but I do not believe a mother with a son there ever had a good time."

"Men have physical courage," she added, "but they often lack moral courage, and that's the kind of courage most needed today."

Answering another bombardment of questions, Lady Astor said:

"There are two sections of the labor party—one embraces tried and true trade unions; the other young intellectuals. I know the latter as red hot Bolshevik cranks. Half of them never fought in the war, and most of them have never been workingmen. They are heart and soul of the independent labor party."

Hood Prices, being based absolutely on actual costs of highest quality materials and labor, are consistent with Hood Quality and Road Service

The Hood ideal of tire value and service — greatest average mileage actually delivered at lowest cost per mile — remains unshaken by unsettled conditions which are arising to confront and confuse both tire dealers and tire users.

With costs of materials and labor at a high point, with the cost of cotton showing increase, with labor constantly increasing in cost, with rubber only slightly weakening, and with overhead reduced to a point of efficiency seldom equaled in the tire business, Hood will maintain present prices and quality.

Any reduction under the above conditions would necessitate a reduction of quality or quantity of materials or of both. We will not pull down our standard—it has made Hood Tires famous the country over as the Quality Tires of America.

The quality of Hood Tires will be maintained.

Hood prices will continue to be—as in the past—THE standard by which real tire values can be safely judged, for to-day the price of a tire is the only true representation of comparative value—guarantees have come to mean nothing.

Ask us to show you records of Hood average mileage of last year. Let us prove to you WHY price, divided by miles actually delivered, makes the Hood the most economical tire you can buy.

Can you afford to be without Hoods?

KILLS MOTHER-IN-LAW

Hagerstown Man Shoots Her Dead in Her Kitchen

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Nettie Hose, aged 48, North Prospect street, was shot to death shortly before noon yesterday in the kitchen at her home by her son in law, George M. Kauffman, who quarreled with his mother-in-law because she would not aid him in locating his wife, Ella Kauffman, who left him Monday in Cleveland, Ohio, where they had been living for the last three years. Kauffman came to Hagerstown, believing he would find his wife here.

Kauffman surrendered himself at police headquarters directly after the shooting, to which there were no witnesses, and made a confession.

Mrs. Hose, who was separated from her husband, Alexander Hose, lived with her sons, Brenton 7 and Clyde Hose, and a niece, Miss Eva Pompell.

Kauffmann visited Mrs. Rose last night and had a stormy interview with her, it is reported, leaving at midnight in an angry mood. It is said he failed to obtain from Mrs. Hose any information as to his wife's whereabouts. Yesterday Kauffman again visited Mrs. Hose and, finding no one in the house except his mother in law, it is presumed, he shot her when she refused to aid him in finding her daughter.

THEATRES

GRAND THEATRE

All of the regular patrons of the Grand Theatre will find a picture of unusual interest in "Dombey & Son," to be presented tonight. And it is not amiss to say that a picture of this character will create many new friends of enthusiastic picturegoers for Managers Rose and Seigel. For it teems with human interest, mirroring upon the screen the virtues and vices; the strength and weakness; the generosity and selfishness; the love and hatred, Proud and haughty Paul Dombey; even of modern times. In fact, these very qualities which exist in the Dickens characters are responsible for the life and appeal of his novels to the average present-day readers of all ages.

Every character in the tale of "Dombey & Son" will bring to mind a counterpart in those with whom you mingle day by day. his gentle daughter, Florence; the equally arrogant wife, who dared to defy her unjust mate; the confidential clerk, Carker, a wolf in sheep's clothing; all of these you will recognize at once. For Nature does not change, and people are alike wherever they may be.

This unusually interesting picture will be at the Grand Theatre tonight. Also Mutt and Jeff.
